Who we are

In today's turbulent markets, creditors confront increasing risk. Caplin & Drysdale has a team of litigators and restructuring attorneys who focus on protecting creditors' rights in major corporate restructurings and bankruptcies. We have extensive experience as counsel to official creditors' committees and have also represented secured creditors and other stakeholders in complex, high stakes Chapter 11 reorganizations and contested insolvency and claim-valuation proceedings under the Bankruptcy Code.

Knowledge

- Creditors' rights litigation such as fraudulent conveyance and successor liability actions
- Treatment of complex financial products and related issues in bankruptcy
- Mass tort insolvencies
- Establishment of settlement trusts and other compensation mechanisms

Performance

From crafting the correct strategy to the rigors of case analysis, persuasive written advocacy, effective oral presentation, and negotiating complex transactions, we have the abilities needed to untangle the most complex bankruptcy matters and achieve the desired result.

Value

We emphasize close communication with clients, hands-on involvement by senior lawyers, and streamlining staffing in relation to the size of the matters we handle.
