

In 1949, Mr. Gregory H. Swanson applied to the LL.M. program at the University of Virginia School of Law. Our firm's founder, Mr. Mortimer M. Caplin, led the faculty in unanimously voting to admit Mr. Swanson to the law school. Unfortunately, the University Board of Visitors ultimately rejected Mr. Swanson's application, forcing Mr. Swanson to sue to gain admission. Thurgood Marshall and others represented Mr. Swanson in his victory before the Fourth Circuit, which allowed him to attend the School of Law and become the first African American to attend the University of Virginia. This case was a foundation for Brown v. Board of Education. In 1961, Mr. Caplin, then-Commissioner of the IRS, hired Mr. Swanson to be an attorney at the IRS. Mr. Swanson would continue to work at the IRS until his retirement.

Caplin & Drysdale created this fellowship to honor Mr. Swanson's legacy and our founder's commitment to diversity in the legal profession. The fellowship will provide a diverse 1L summer associate with a stipend and a paid summer associate position in Caplin & Drysdale's Tax and Tax Exempt Organizations practices. Eligible applicants must meet the following criteria:

- Be in good standing as a 1L student at an ABA-accredited law school;
- Self-identify as a member of a racial or ethnic minority group and/or as a member of the LGBTQ community;
- Be a U.S. citizen or authorized to work in the United States;
- Demonstrate academic achievement and leadership skills;
- Will not be the recipient of a diversity award from another law firm; and
- Demonstrate a commitment to practicing in Washington, DC.

The fellowship compensation and stipend will be structured as follows:

- You will be compensated at the same rate as a summer associate, which is identical to the pro-rated salary of a first-year associate;
- After completing your 1L summer associateship at Caplin & Drysdale, you will receive a $5,000 stipend upon receiving and accepting a 2L summer associate employment offer;
- You will receive a $10,000 stipend at the end of your 2L summer, in addition to regular summer associate compensation. You must commit to returning for a minimum of 6 weeks during your 2L summer in order to receive the second stipend; and
- If you receive and accept a full-time position with the firm after graduation, you will receive a $10,000 stipend after three months of employment.
