

Client Advantages

Caplin & Drysdale has provided comprehensive legal service since 1964. Our style of practice is aimed at minimizing our clients' liabilities without compromising the ethical principles that are essential to the legal system.

Clients come to Caplin & Drysdale seeking highly-skilled and extremely knowledgeable attorneys in the areas of bankruptcy, business, investment & transactional tax, complex litigation, corporate law, employee benefits, exempt organizations, international tax, political law, private client, tax disputes & tax litigation, and criminal tax cases & white collar defense. Our unique collection of practice areas, combined with our attorney's extensive and unparalleled experience, provides our clients with the technical counsel they need at a level that is unmatched in the market. We rarely handle "routine" matters, with most of our engagements requiring innovative and tailored solutions to solve the difficult challenges facing our clients.

Since 1964, Caplin & Drysdale has been dedicated to excellence in the profession and service to clients. We value the relationships we have built with clients and the collaborative culture we have built amongst our attorneys. As a boutique firm our rates are competitive and our staffing is lean. Our clients have immediate and direct access to senior attorneys who truly take the time to understand each client's needs, helping them to meet their strategic objectives. We are proud to serve as the trusted advisors for a broad spectrum of clients, from individuals to the nation's leading organizations, to large and small corporations throughout the United States and around the world. We are also privileged to serve as legal advisors to accounting firms, financial institutions, law firms, and other professional services organizations.
