

Niles Elber Addresses Recent Civil & Criminal Tax Updates at NYU 82nd Institute on Federal Taxation

10.22.2023

New York, NY

Program: From the Experts: Tax Controversy and Tax Litigation - Civil & Criminal Tax Update (panelist)

Event Sponsor: NYU 82nd Institute on Federal Taxation

Join a leading group of tax controversy practitioners from both the private sector and the government in an open discussion regarding current IRS enforcement priorities, initiatives, and campaigns. The panel covers a broad range of topics that impact tax compliance and tax litigation, including an examination of recent cases, investigations, and programs - including familiar areas such as Microcaptive Insurance Arrangements, Digital Assets, and Offshore Accounts and Foreign Information Reporting Penalties, while also delving into hot new topics such as Monetized Installment Sales, Employee Retention Credits and Treaty Pension Benefits - many of which have come to the forefront of the attention of taxpayers and professionals alike from the flurry of IRS notices as well as the explosion of taxpayer challenges to IRS guidance and regulations.
