

Anne O'Brien Named a Leading Practitioner in Who's Who Legal

12.23.2015 | Awards & Rankings

Who's Who Legal

Who's Who Legal: Private Client 2015 issue names Caplin & Drysdale's Anne J. O'Brien as one of the world's leading practitioners in the global private client/wealth management community. Nominated by her peers, Ms. O'Brien is a highly-skilled trust and estate technician who advises domestic and international private clients on safeguarding their personal and business interests. She offers counsel on matters relating to estate planning, trust and estate administration, and related areas of federal and state tax law. These areas include transfers of family wealth to succeeding generations, settlement negotiations in large estate controversies, family trust matters, and charitable tax planning. Additionally, Ms. O'Brien assists high-net-worth individuals and families in structuring their U.S. and global holdings, as well as the transfer of those holdings to family members, trusts, charitable organizations, and other entities.

Attorneys

Anne J. O'Brien

Related Practices/Industries

Private Client