10.12.2018

Caplin & Drysdale

Caplin & Drysdale alum Lloyd Hitoshi Mayer was honored as a member of the 2018 Notre Dame All-Faculty Team. The Notre Dame All-Faculty Team borrows from the tradition of recognizing outstanding student-athletes being named to All-American teams. In doing so, Notre Dame recognizes the accomplishments of its most outstanding professors:

“At every home football game, the provost will honor a different member of the faculty on the field during a timeout. These . . . individuals have been chosen from across Notre Dame’s colleges and schools for their excellence in research, teaching, and service to the University.”
