

Caplin & Drysdale Receives Tax Awards

02.27.2013 | Awards & Rankings

Acquisition International ("AI") has named Caplin & Drysdale "2013 Tax Law Firm of the Year - Washington, D.C." and "U.S. Transfer Pricing Firm of the Year – Washington, D.C.," following the most successful voting period in the publication's history, with record votes cast by Acquisition International Magazine subscribers. This achievement highlights Caplin & Drysdale's leading role within the international tax community. For more information, please visit AI's website.

The Acquisition International Tax Awards celebrate excellence within the financial and legal communities across all areas of expertise. These awards recognize tax firms for their contribution to client service and for their experience and skills in key practice areas and sectors.

Related Practices/Industries

International Tax

Tax Disputes & Tax Litigation