

Fortune Magazine Lists Patricia Lewis and Richard Skillman as Top Rated Lawyers

08.25.2014 | Awards & Rankings

Fortune Magazine

A special supplement in the September 2014 issue of Fortune Magazine lists Patricia Gimbel Lewis and Richard W. Skillman as "Top Rated Lawyers in Labor and Employment." Both are featured for their work in Employee Benefits and Executive Compensation. The rating reflects Ms. Lewis' and Mr. Skillman's record of success in these practice areas and is a testament to their high level of professional excellence.

Richard W. Skillman is a Member in Caplin & Drysdale's Washington, D.C., office. Mr. Skillman's practice focuses on federal taxation and covers a broad cross-section of domestic and international tax matters, including the representation of individual and corporate taxpayers in tax controversies, as well as in tax planning. Moreover, Mr. Skillman handles tax issues involving executive compensation and other employee benefits, insurance companies and products, corporate tax, tax accounting, and international tax.

Patricia Gimbel Lewis is a Member in Caplin & Drysdale's Washington, D.C., office. Ms. Lewis counsels companies regarding various employee benefit plans and controversies, in addition to advice on matters of international taxation and cross-border transfer pricing.

Attorneys

Richard W. Skillman

Related Practices/Industries

Business, Investment & Transactional Tax

International Tax

Tax Disputes & Tax Litigation