

Melissa Wiley Elected Regent of the American College of Tax Counsel

03.01.2023

Caplin & Drysdale is pleased to announce that the American College of Tax Counsel has elected Melissa Wiley to be a Regent for the Federal Circuit. Before being elected to Board of Regents Ms. Wiley was a Fellow of the College which is an honor reserved only for those who have made an exceptional contribution to their profession. The College provides a venue for lawyers to promote sound tax policy and to engage in thoughtful discussion with the government about matters affecting the tax system. As part of its mission to improve the tax system, the College provides recommendations to Congress and the Internal Revenue Service for improving the nation's tax laws and the way that they are interpreted and administered.

As a Member of Caplin & Drysdale, Ms. Wiley's practice focuses on assisting clients to come into compliance with their U.S. tax obligations and advising U.S. taxpayers on all types of civil and criminal tax controversy matters at the federal and state level.
