Expert Guides

Expert Guides distinguishes Caplin & Drysdale's Patricia Gimbel Lewis as one of only 30 elite practitioners to receive the "Best of the Best" USA in transfer pricing for 2014, based on nominations by in-house counsel and law firm lawyers. Ms. Lewis' practice centers on representing corporate taxpayers in international transfer pricing issues, competent authority matters, and other aspects of international taxation. This includes tax planning advice on compliance with U.S. and foreign transfer pricing rules in connection with ongoing business operations or business transactions, as well as assistance in the event of tax audits and other administrative controversies. A particular emphasis is the negotiation of advance pricing agreements (APAs) between taxpayers, the IRS, and foreign tax authorities.
