The Legal Times reported on President Obama's intent to nominate Cono R. Namorato as the next Assistant Attorney General in charge of the Department of Justice Tax Division. "Cono is so extraordinarily qualified. I honestly can't think of anyone better for the position," said Kathryn Keneally, who held the position from 2012 to 2014. "Frankly, there's a whole generation of prosecutors out there who were mentored by Cono." For more on the story, please visit the Legal Times' website.
